

Dr. Angel Fernandez Flores studied Medicine in Madrid where he also obtained his PhD. He trained as a Histopathologist in the Fundación Jimenez Diaz (Madrid) and developed an interest in Dermatopathology. He obtained the Certification of the International Board of Dermatopathology in the exam of the The European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS). He is the author of more than 130 peer-reviewed scientific reports and of 22 chapters in medical books, as well as Editor of 4 medical books.

He is Member of the Editorial Board of the American Journal of Dermatopathology, the Romanian Journal of Morphology and Embryology, the journal Our Dermatology Online, and of the Revista Española de Patología (Official Spanish Journal of the Spanish Society of Pathology and from the Spanish Division of the International Academy of Pathology). He is member of the International Society of Dermatopathology, the Club of the European School of Oncology, the European Society of Pathology and of the Spanish Society of Anatomic Pathology (Spanish Division of the International Academy of Pathology). His current h-index is 8.