

Dr Tan Suat Hoon is Director of the National Skin Centre, Singapore and is a Senior Consultant Dermatologist and Dermatopathologist. She holds a Clinical Associate Professor appointment with the Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore (NUS) and holds dual adjunct positions with the Duke-NUS Graduate Medical School Singapore and with the Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine, Nanyang Technological University/Imperial College London. She is Chairman of the National Residency Advisory Committee for Dermatology. She has authored more than 130 indexed publications and 6 book chapters in clinical dermatology and dermatopathology.